

Karabo Ntshweng

I am a South African media personality and broadcaster with over 23 years of experience across television and radio. I began my career as a presenter on the iconic children's television show YoTV, where I developed a strong foundation in live television, audience connection, and storytelling.

I went on to build a respected radio career, working at 947 and later 5FM, before moving into my current role as a weekday radio host from 7-10 pm on 5FM. Over the course of my career, I've worked across live broadcasting, television, and live events, earning a reputation for warmth, professionalism, and cultural fluency.

My work is rooted in meaningful conversation, authentic connection, and longevity in the media industry. With decades of experience and a continued commitment to growth, I remain passionate about creating content and experiences that resonate with South African audiences across platforms.
